State of health Flower

In October 2017 a new set of RX images has been made for all auction horses.

All auction horses had a clinical exam in the beginning of November 2017.

If you are interested in a specific horse you can contact us through the contact from on this website to have the images and report involved forwarded to you.

Flower is cribbing.